The Traffic Patrol

The 1939 Traffic Patrol Boys have held their offices permanently and have faithfully performed their duties. We hope that next years Patrol Boys will be as successful as ours have been.

This year the boys have been rewarded in many ways for their services. We would like at this time to express our thanks and appreciation to Sergeant Reynolds and to the Irvington Junior Chamber of Commerce for all they have done for us.

We first had the opportunity of attending a Turkey Dinner in Livermore at Thanksgiving time. Here we had the opportunity of meeting the boys on the different patrols in our county.

Later in the year we had the opportunity of attending the Stanford- Washington football game at the Stanford Stadium. Washington won by a three point margin.

In May we participated in a drill at Treasure Island with Patrol Boys from the six Western States. We are seen in our suits for this occasion in the above picture. These suits were given to us by the Irvington Junior Chamber of Commerce. We owe our success in our drill to Mr. Robert Hunt who worked with us very patiently until we had it learnt.

The School Orchestra

After five years the students of the Irvington School have again had the opportunity to study music through a school orchestra. Under the instruction of Mr. Thompson and Miss Lee, the orchestra has advanced so rapidly that they have been able to play for their parents at the Christmas program, during Educational Week, and for guests. For one hour every week the orchestra meets at Irvington, Library, and Alvarado Schools and play for them. This group is made up of the Washington High School students and the eighth grade of Washington Township at Irvington. The following are the members of the orchestra:

Graduation Song

1st Verse

On this our graduation day,
Our hearts are happy young and gay,
This is a time we'll ne'er forget,
We leave our school with much regret:
In this High School we'll make a start,
Our Grammar School will remain in our Hearts,
Our lessons learned we'll keep in mind,
As we in High our places find.

Chorus

Now that our work in school is done,
We're happy with our Laurels won,
Each with ambitious thoughts in mind,
Our place in other fields we'll find.
Many happy days are here then gone,
But memories will linger on.
We face the future unafraid,
With dearest tho'ts of friends we've made.

2nd Verse

Let's not forget our Parents dear,
Who sacrificed thru out the year,
To educate both you and me,
The better things in life to see.
We give our thanks to God in high,
That His dear blessings on us lie,
As we go forth on our own way,
After this glad Commencement day.

Graduation Song

1st Verse

On this our graduation day,
Our hearts are happy young and gay,
This is a time we'll never forget,
We leave our school with such regret;
In this High School we'll make a mark,
Our Granger School will remain in our hearts,
Our lessons learned we'll keep in mind,
As we in High our places find.

Chorus

Now that our work in school is done,
We're happy with our friends and fun,
Each with ambitions bristles in mind,
Our place in other fields we'll find,
Many happy days are now ahead,
But memories will linger on,
We face the future unafraid,
With dearest friends of friends we've made.

2nd Verse

Let's not forget our friends here,
Who've helped us through our years,
To remember them we'll try to do,
The better things in life to see,
We give our thanks to God in high,
That His dear blessings on us lie,
As we go forth on our own way,
After this glad Commencement day.

Jokes

Teacher: "If you had $10 in one pocket and $15 in the other, what would you have?"
Johnny: "Someone else's pants."

"John, I found this letter in your pocket this morning. I gave it to you a month ago to mail."
"Yes, dear, I remember, I took that coat off for you to sew a button on and I'm still waiting."

"I called to make an appointment with the dentist."
"He's out now."
"Good; when will he be out again?"

Policeman: "How did you knock him down?"
Motorist: "I didn't. I pulled up to let him go across and he fainted."

Monsieur: "Tonight I will steal beneath your balcony and whisper a sweet serenade."
Madame: "Do, and I will drop you a flower."
Monsieur: "Ah, in a moment of ecstasy?"
Madame: "No. In a pot!"

Joan, aged five, was speaking to her father on the telephone for the first time. As it was a little above her reach, her mother tipped the mouthpiece down toward her.
"Oh, don't do that, mummy," she exclaimed, "daddy might fall out."

A young lawyer, seeing his first client at the door, thought to impress him. Picking up the telephone he spoke as follows:
"Yes, I got you a judgment for $10,000 . . . Oh, well it was easy . . . all in knowing how . . . or, pardon me (looking up) and what can I do for you, sir?"
"I've come to connect your telephone, sir."

Servant: "The doctor's here sir."
Absent-minded Prof. "I can't see him. Tell him I'm sick."

John

Teacher: "If you had $10 in one pocket and $15 in the other, what would you have?"
Johnny: "Twenty-five cents."

"John, I found this letter in your pocket this morning. I gave it to you a month ago to mail."
"Yes, dear, I remember. I took that note off for you to put a button on and I'm still waiting."

"I called to make an appointment with the dentist."
"He's out now."
"Good; then will he be out again?"

Policeman: "How did you know his name?"
Detective: "I didn't. I pulled up to let him go across and he talked."

Man: "Tonight I will steal diamonds from jewelry and whisper a sweet no-no."
Woman: "Do, and I will drop you a flower."
Man: "In a moment of ecstasy?"
Woman: "No, in a puff."

John, aged five, was speaking to his father on the telephone for the first time. As it was a little above his reach, his mother lifted the telephone. John turned her.
"Oh, don't do that, Mary," she explained.

A young lawyer, seeing his first client at the door, thought he ought to pick up the telephone and speak as follows:
"You, I got your judgment for $10,000. On well it was sent. . . all in twenty-two. . . or, please me (looking up) and what can I do for you, sir?"
"I've come to consult your telephone, sir."

Garland: "The doctor's here, sir."
Absent-minded Prof.: "I can't see him. Tell him I'm sick."
